Houdon. T was sent to America from Paris when Thomas Jefferson was Minister to rance, by Houdon, with the expectation ve it cast in bronze. This was, how-er, destroyed when the Capitol was rned, and this statuette is the only foung, of Edinborough, Scotland, Many relics of Washington are exhibited, inetters to Congress, the sword which

Father of His Country. Many handsome swords were presented to the first Presilent, but it was this plain old blade

which he fought throughout the long and nequal struggle. The papers of Benjamin Franklin, James Madison, James Monroe, Alexander Hamilton, and many thers are also exhibited. A curious specimen of a state paper from the Emperor of China to the Presilent of the United States derives special nterest from the present status of afairs in that country. This letter, which tobody can read, was brought over by if Hung Chang wrapped up in about two rards of yellow silk most elaborately embroidered. This "envelope" is also ex-ayed, but after that of Washington robably comes the sword of Gen. An-rew Jackson, with which some good honest fighting was done. The splendidly eweled swords and presents received by General Grant cannot fail to command dmiration. Another superb article extan of Turkey to the United States in commemoration of the 40th anniversary of the discovery of America. This meda glitter with diamonds. There is a fine isplay of other medals sent to this coun being very artistic and costly. Another woven in one piece, and given to this country by 25,000 weavers of Lyons, France, as an expression of their sympahy when President Lincoln was murder-d. There is a fine collection of foreign oins exhibited. The walls of the section are ornamented vith portraits of the Secretaries of State and photographs of the buildings occupied by the Department of State with some of he handsomest interiors. Portraits of all s the territory of the United States from 1789 to 1901, including the dates 1803, 1821, 1845, 1848, 1853, and 1867, at which dates lew possessions were added.

A large collection of letters from the ads of foreign Governments to the Uniteresting of these are: One from Louis XVI, King of France, and others from representatives of the French people, in-cluding Robespierre, conveying the infor-arte, from Queen Victoria, from the Czar f Russia, the King of Denmark, the ueen of Portugal, the King of Greece, the King of Belgium, the King of Sweden, on from the Emperor and Empress of nerican republics and Mexico. There peculiar specimens of chirography n the Shah of Persia, the King of si Madagasear, the King and Queen of Hareaty with Spain is exhibited and is of cial interest to our Spanish-American

There is a mistaken impression among a great many people that the eyes should be treated medically before putting on glasses. In ninety-nine out of a hundred cases it is unnecessary. and even injurious. If you ? need glasses at all you need them right away. There is $ a strain upon the nerves and $ muscles of the eye that all $ the medicine in the world will not relieve. Glasses will relieve the extra work and nature will do the rest. The commercial branch of the department has control of all matters pertaining to the collection of revenue, and Congress has assigned to the Secretary of the Treasury the duty of enforcing all laws relating to domestic and foreign commerce of the United States. The discharge of the duties thus mposed on the department has resulted in the establishment of numerous bureaus. Among them is the lighthouse establishment. This forms a conspicuous exhibit immediately under the rotunda in the Government Building at the Pan-American Exposition, where a lighthouse is erected and equipped with all the necessary paraphernalla.

The Life Saving Service is another bureau of the Treasury Department. This exhibit will be seen at the Park Lake during the summer months and will prove a great attraction.

The Marine Hospital Service illustrates the care of the Government in preventing the introduction and spreading of epidemic diseases by the establishment of quarantine stations and by the erection of Government hospitals for the care and men. In this exhibit is a complete operating room and x-ray apparatus showing the wonderful advance in science.

The Coast and Geodetic Survey is also under the Treasury Department. Here is exhibited a complete set of mans and charts of the gold filds of Alaska and the United States. Models of the yessels and appurtenances for deep-sea sounding and coast surveying are also shown. Included in this exhibit are the portraits of the Secretaries of the Treasury from the time of Alexander Hamilton to the present date. The representative of the Treasury on the Government Board is W. H. Hill, the Superintendent of the Treasury Department. This exhibit is in charge of William C. Beckwith, of Chicago.

Book Sale.

(Basement.) We have just purchased over 3,000 volumes from one of the largest book jobbers in the United States. Embraced in this list are Fiction, Romance, Novels, History, Adventure, Travel, Poetry, Biography, Theology, Metaphysics, Essays, Scientific, and Technical Books, important works on Electricity, Engineering, Carpentry, etc.; also books on Home Decoration-in fact, nearly every department of literature is represented. Over a thousand titles are here, and in many instances only us to offer these at Less Than Half, Third, and Even a Quarter Regular Prices.

The quantity purchased enables a few copies of each book.

Nearly all of the books are bound in cloth and were published to sell at 50c, 75c, $1.00, and all the way up to $4.00 and $6.00; some of the books have been carelessly handled, and as a result they are a little the worse for it, but the majority are clean and fresh, substantially and attractively bound. We have arranged these books on large tables easily, accessible, all the same price together, as follows:

10c, 15c, 25c, and 50c.

In a great many instances there are only a few of each title, and as they are sure to be disposed of quickly at the prices we have marked them, an early call is suggested. A catalogue is being prepared,
